Executive Function Skills in the Classroom IOS Press

This book presents innovative instructional interventions designed to support inquiry project-based learning as an approach to equip students with 21st century skills. Instructional techniques include collaborative team-based teaching, social constructivist game design and game play, and productive uses of social media such as wikis and other online communication affordances. The book will be of interest to researchers seeking a summary of recent empirical studies in the inquiry project-based learning domain that employ new technologies as constructive media for student synthesis and creation. The book also bridges the gap between empirical works and a range of national- and international-level educational standards frameworks such as the P21, the OECD framework, AASL Standards for the 21st Century Learner, and the Common Core State Standards in the US. Of particular interest to education practitioners, the book offers detailed descriptions of inquiry project-based learning interventions that can be directly reproduced in today's schools. Further, the book provides research-driven guidelines for the evaluation of student inquiry project-based learning. Lastly, it offers education policymakers insight into establishing anchors and spaces for applying inquiry project-based learning opportunities for youth today in the context of existing and current education reform efforts. The aim of this book is to support education leaders', practitioners' and researchers' efforts in advancing inspiring and motivating student learning through transformative social constructivist inquiry-based knowledge-building with information technologies. We propose that preparing students with inquiry mindsets and dispositions can promote greater agency, critical thinking and resourcefulness, qualities needed for addressing the complex societal challenges they may face.

The High School Student's Guide to Writing a Great Research Paper Oswaal Books and Learning Private Limited

This text is the first to put ethical issues in a cultural and historical context, based on the premise that ethical problems arise from myriad of cultural forces. The first section focuses on ethics in postmodern America and how to effectively make decisions in a contemporary society. Next, students learn about ethical philosophers--from Plato to Foucault--and their beliefs. The individual philosophical messages within each biographical sketch can be fully realized when applied to the included media case studies. The final part of the text asks students to apply the these philosophers' teachings to ethical issues in areas such as journalism, public relations, and the music industry. Some case studies are entirely new, others updated, and include Nike's labor practices, September 11 and the news, the South Park cartoon, the NFL, and the advertising of prescription medicine.

*WINNER OF THE NATIONAL BOOK AWARD 2014* A young army captain who risked execution to swim from free-market Taiwan to Communist China. A barber who made $150 million in the gambling dens of Macau. The richest woman in China, a recycling tycoon known as the 'Wastepaper Queen'. Age of Ambition describes some of the billion individual lives that make up China's story - one that unfolds on remote farms, in glittering mansions, and in the halls of power of the world's largest authoritarian regime. Together they describe the defining clash taking place today: between the individual and the Communist Party's struggle to retain control. Here is a China infused with a sense of boundless possibility and teeming romance. Yet it is also riven by contradictions. It is the world's largest buyer of Rolls Royces and Ferraris yet the word 'luxury' is banned from billboards. It has more Christians than members of the Communist Party. And why does a government that has lifted more people from poverty than any other so strictly restrain freedom of expression? Based on years of research, Age of Ambition is a stunning narrative that reveals China as we have never understood it before.

De wereld van een losgeslagen jeugd, beschreven door een 17-jarig wonderkind Zelden is een literair debuut zo lyrisch ontvangen als Axolotl Roadkill. Helene Hegemann, 17 jaar oud bij verschijning van het boek, werd door recensenten en lezers terstond herkend als de authentieke, rauwe stem van de generatie Nul. In deze radicale roman maken we kennis met de 16-jarige Mifti, die, getraumatiseerd door de dood van haar moeder, bij haar halfzus in Berlijn gaat wonen. Hoewel ze intelligent is en uit een goed milieu komt weigert ze naar school te gaan. Ze verdeelt haar tijd tussen haar bed, de flats van oudere vrienden en het Berlijnse nachtleven, waar ze zich overgeeft aan seks, drugs en verveling. Mifti is een fascinerende verteller die ons nauwgezet laat zien hoe ze van de rails raakt. Daarbij geeft ze blijk van een verbluffend psychologisch inzicht in haar situatie. Ze vergelijkt zichzelf met een axolotl, een glimlachende salamander die nooit volwassen wordt, en met een 'roadkill', een dier dat na een aanrijding dood langs de weg blijft liggen.

Academic Paper from the year 2018 in the subject Business economics - Company formation, Business Plans, grade: 78.00, , course: LRPM, language: English, abstract: Unilever is London-based multinational company that specialises on fast-moving consumer products in more than 190 countries across the globe. However, Unilever is increasingly facing stiff competition from local, regional, and international companies in virtually all levels from rival firms. The competition is reflected across its over 400 brands in four predominant categories, namely personal care, refreshments, home care, and foods. This calls for a strategic analysis of the company in attempts to identify sustainable recommendations in attempts to enhance the performance and competitiveness of Unilever around the world.
